TIDAL WAVES HIT. Steel parking meters bent like hairpins and a wide empty path cut where a seismic sea wave crushed to death a thriving business district in Hilo, Hawaii, Monday. Thirty-three are known dead and 53 injured and at least 23 missing (UPI Telephoto)

U.S. West Coast Also Hit

Tidal Waves Deal Deadly Blows To Hawaii, Japan

By The Associated Press
 Tidal waves spawned by the earthquakes in Chile, surged around the Pacific Monday and today, leaving at least 350 persons dead or missing in Japan, Hawaii, Chile and Okinawa.
 Pacific coasts of the United States, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand and Formosa also were hit in varying degrees.
 Hundreds of miles of Japan's east coast were battered at dawn and the death toll rose hourly as delayed reports were received.
 The semi-official Japan Broadcasting Corp. reported at least 85 dead, 78 missing, 884 injured and 46,000 homes flooded, destroyed or washed away.
 The tide hit as high as 30 feet at some points in Japan. The average was six or seven feet. Warnings were not broadcast until after the waves began pounding the coast. Weather Bureau officials said there had been a slipup in the warning system.
 Tokyo and Yokohama, sheltered by Tokyo Bay, were spared direct blows. The greatest damage was along the northern 200 miles of Honshu's coast. Villages there became a tangled mass of shattered buildings debris and ships washed ashore.

Native Of Wellsville Survives Chile Quake

A native of Wellsville, now residing in Concepcion, Chile, escaped injury in the earthquake which struck the South American country over the weekend.
 Friends and relatives of Alex McCord received word Monday that he was unharmed. McCord is employed in a steel mill at Concepcion.
 He started work there March 1, 1959, moving from Louisville. City Auditor Edgar S. Davidson of 15th St. is his brother-in-law and Mrs. Kenneth Kelly, also of 15th St., is a sister-in-law.
 Mill officials notified the New York office that all Americans were safe. The New York office then phoned all close relatives of the employees. Several residents from Louisville and Canton are employed at Concepcion in the mill, which also received heavy damage.
 Disaster crews moved into Hilo, Hawaii's second city, where 33 persons were known dead, 23 missing and 53 injured in the wake of the Hawaiian Island's worst disaster since 1946. Damage was estimated unofficially at up to 50 million dollars.

 Four massive waves pounded a mile-long area in Hilo, a city of about 26,000 population on the island of Hawaii. The waves—one 12 feet—struck the other Hawaiian Islands as well, but damage was small compared to the chaos in Hilo.
 A six-foot wave hit the American-occupied Ryukyu Islands at dawn, killing three Okinawan villagers, ripping boats from their moorings and dumping tons of salt water on rice crops. No casualties were reported among the American occupation forces on Okinawa.
 The toll soared in southern and central Chile, victim of three days of earthquakes and the first tidal wave. By Monday night 400 persons were reported dead, 800 missing and about 1,600 injured, and many stricken sectors still had not been heard from.
 Six hundred persons were reported missing on one Chilean town, Quileu. A Santiago newspaper reported tidal waves as high as 24 feet had washed over some towns.

Soviets Free C47 And All 9 Americans

Red Germany Issues Hot Protest Against Flight Of Transport

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—The U.S. Air Force announced that Soviet authorities today freed a C47 that strayed into Communist East Germany last Friday and the nine Americans aboard it.
 The Soviet high command in East Germany issued a vigorous protest against the twin-engine transport's flight and declared the American command in West Germany would have to take full responsibility for the incident.
 A Soviet statement said the Soviets forced down the plane to protect the frontiers of East Germany as a member of the Warsaw Pact, a Soviet-led Communist military alliance.

A U.S. Air Force spokesman said the plane with its occupants—eight Air Force men and a woman—had taken off from East Germany and was en route to Air Force headquarters at Wiesbaden. But a short time later the spokesman withdrew this and said he could not say exactly when the plane would arrive.
 The Soviet protest was directed to Gen. Clyde D. Eddleman, U.S. Army commander in Europe. Eddleman had asked for release of the Americans and their plane in a message Saturday to Col. Gen. I. I. Yakubovsky, commander of Soviet forces in East Germany.

The East German news agency ADN announced the protest in Berlin.
 It reported that Eddleman was told: "Soviet fighters on duty repeatedly gave the border violator the established signal to land. However, the latter did not react, which resulted in the Soviet fighters taking justified decisive action."
 It was not officially specified whether this action included warning shots.
 The protest concluded with a statement that Yakubovsky was ready to turn over the plane, crew and passengers to a representative of Eddleman whenever the American found it convenient.
 The C47 transport was forced down when it got over the border into East Germany while on a flight from Copenhagen Denmark to Hamburg, Germany.
 The plane landed near the East German town of Grundshagen, about 20 miles from the West German border. Soviet spokesmen in Berlin said it landed undamaged.
 The Soviets made no attempt to whip up an international incident over the plane, as they had over the U2 spy plane forced down over the Soviet Union on May Day.
 Nor did they follow their usual tactic of trying to force American military authorities to secure release of the plane and its occupants from the Communist East German regime.
 In the past, the Soviets referred such matters to the East Germans to force a measure of Western recognition for the satellite regime, with which the Western Allies normally refuse to deal.
 But this time the Soviets kept the Americans in their custody

Pair Reached Quickly

Rescuers Dig Out 2 Men Trapped In Deep Ditch

NARROW ESCAPE. Firemen and fellow workers dig furiously to reach the two East Liverpool men trapped in the Claiborne St. sewer excavation early this afternoon, rescuing both despite the fear that the deep ditch would crumble again. They were taken to City Hospital for examination. Heads of both trapped men are visible at the feet of the rescuers. One suffered a broken leg, the other only shock.

One Suffers Broken Leg, Face Injury

Companion Believed Hurt Only Slightly In Claiborne Mishap

Two city men escaped death early this afternoon when the sides of a sewer excavation collapsed while they were working at the bottom of the trench on Claiborne St.
 Jack Graham of W. 9th St. and Harry Cunningham were dug out from the fallen earth by firemen, police and other rescue teams at 1:30.
 The two men, employees of the Sikora Brothers Excavating Co., working the Carpenter's Run trunk line sewer project, were freed within a half hour of the mishap.
 Cunningham was covered by about a foot of earth, and apparently suffered a fractured leg. His face was also bloody when police and firemen quickly dug away at the soil about him.
 He was freed about 1:25 p. m. and placed in a waiting ambulance to be taken to City Hospital for examination.
 Graham did not appear to be hurt, and he was standing with his head above the dirt when rescuers arrived.
 The two were working at the bottom of the trench, about 15 feet deep, when the sides gave way.
 The site is about 250 yards north of Dresden Ave. in a low-lying area.
 The Poland firm is installing the trunk line sewer under a city contract.
 The rescue units quickly converged on the scene and the frantic digging to free the two started within minutes. The caving was timed at 1 p. m.
 Rescuers crowded around both sides of the men's heads when they were uncovered to keep any other dirt from falling in on them and shutting off the air. The digging proceeded slowly once the men were reached as there was fear that the jarring might cause another slide.
 Spectators quickly gathered at the scene.
 Ambulances were held in readiness to carry the two to the hospital.
 A large crowd quickly gathered at the site to watch the rescue efforts. A crew from the Ohio Valley Gas Co. was also at the scene.
 A gas line serving about 13 homes was broken last week by the contractor's equipment.
 It was the second sewer ditch mishap in the East Liverpool area. A man was killed in a cave-in at Toronto three weeks ago. One was saved.

Steelworker Kills His Wife And Neighbor

Hunt Spreads In Pennsylvania For Ex-Mental Patient

COOPERSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A steelworker recently discharged from a mental institution shot and killed his wife and a male neighbor early today near this hamlet about 100 miles north of Pittsburgh.
 Armed with a 30-30 rifle, he then fled on foot into a nearby wooded area, touching off a widespread search.
 State police said the dead were Vera Rose Shuffstall, 47, of Cooperstown, R. D. 4, and Harold DuPont, 42, also of Cooperstown R.D.
 State police were searching for Lloyd Shuffstall, 51, a part-time farmer. They said Shuffstall was discharged as a patient last Tuesday from Warren State Hospital.
 State trooper Charles E. Scottson of the barracks at Franklin said a man phoned him early today identifying himself as Derald Shuffstall, a son of Shuffstall's.
 The voice said: "Someone has been shot up in our house. Some of my relatives but I don't know who. You'd better send a car up here."
 An ambulance was sent to the scene. The driver and his helper found Mrs. Shuffstall dead on the first floor of her farm home. DuPont's body was found lying beside his car on a muddy, dirt road about a half mile away.
 The driver said someone fired a couple of shots at him and he drove off without picking up the bodies. The bodies were later recovered.
 State police said Shuffstall laid logs across the rural road and shot DuPont when he stopped his car. He then went to his home and shot his wife.
 Two Shuffstall children were in the house during the shooting. Neither was hurt.
 Some 60 armed troopers, policemen, volunteer firemen and others searched for Shuffstall through the night.
 Authorities said jealousy apparently was the motive for the shooting. They quoted Derald as saying his mother had been a close friend of DuPont's for some time. She was employed as a nurses aid at Meadville City Hospital.

$150 In Fines Levied In Club Whisky Sales

A bartender at the Military Order of Cooties, 110 W. 4th St., was fined $150 and costs today in Municipal Court after pleading guilty to two charges filed by an investigator for the State Liquor Control Board.
 Raymond Lloyd, Box 572, East Liverpool, was charged with making a Sunday sale and a sale to non-members after agents visited the club Sunday. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff fined him $50 and costs for the non-member sale and $100 and costs for the Sunday sale.
 The charge was filed by Stanley Bonnes, an investigator from the liquor control board's district office in Canton, who charged he purchased whisky from Lloyd. Lloyd posted a $250 bond for his hearing today.
 A spokesman for the Canton office said the club will be cited before the board on two counts at a later date. The club holds a D-4 permit, which is the regular club permit allowing sales to members only, the spokesman explained.
 State law also bars the sale of anything stronger than 3.2 beer on Sundays, he added.
 The new city directory lists Lloyd as commander of the organization and his home address as 770 Dresden Ave.
 In response to queries, Bonnes said the W. 4th St. club was the only permit-holder's premises the agents checked Sunday, "acting upon a complaint from Columbus." He said Lloyd was tending bar at the time the agents made the arrest.

$50,000 Loss Set In Blaze At Salem Diner

Waitress, 3 Patrons Flee Structure Hit In Second Major Fire

SALEM — The second major fire here in 2 months hit the Town Hall Diner Monday night, causing an estimated $50,000 damage.
 Cause of the fire, which completely gutted the E. State St. restaurant, was cited by Fire Chief Clarence Wright as a deep fryer which splashed grease onto an open burner or griddle.
 In the building when the fire erupted were a waitress, Mrs. Millie Davis, and three customers. All escaped unharmed.
 It was Mrs. Davis who issued the alarm, calling police at 6:24 p. m.
 The police in turn summoned the fire department.
 Chief Wright said his men had the fire under control within 30 minutes.
 The estimated $50,000 loss combined with the loss of over $70,000 in the Arrow Hardware fire brings the total for the two-month period to well over $100,000. The Arrow fire occurred March 21.

U.S. Launches 'Spy' Satellite Toward Orbit

BULLETIN
 CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States today rocketed an experimental Midas "spy in the sky" satellite toward an orbit about the earth. Midas' mission is to provide almost instant warning of a ballistic missile attack.
 The launching, coinciding with the United Nations spy plane debate, underscored a United States desire to develop measures to protect the free world from surprise aggression.
 A powerful Atlas-Agena rocket boosted the 5,000-pound satellite aloft at 12:37 p. m.
Cuba Arrests 'Number' In Plot Against Castro
 HAVANA (AP)—Cuban authorities reported early today a number of persons had been arrested near Matanzas on charges of plotting against the Castro government. Matanzas is about 60 miles east of Havana.
 The reports said one of those arrested was a former captain in Castro's army, Arturo Castro Reville.

Cuba Arrests 'Number' In Plot Against Castro

The four-nation resolution calling for new Big Four talks noted with regret that world hopes for a successful summit meeting had not been fulfilled. It appealed to all U.N. members "to refrain from any action which might increase tensions" and asked continued negotiations on disarmament, nuclear test suspension and prevention of surprise attack.

UN Proposal Expected For New Summit

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Security Council debate on Soviet spy charges against the United States appeared likely today to produce a call for another try at summit talks with U.N. help.
 A resolution sponsored by Argentina, Ceylon, Ecuador and Tunisia would urge the Big Four "to resume discussions as soon as possible." Diplomats at the U.N. believed it would be approved.
 A Soviet resolution denouncing U.S. espionage flights over foreign soil was expected to fall short of the seven votes needed for adoption by the 11-nation council.

'Appeaser' Term Triggers Fight Summit Failure Flares Up As Major Political Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The summit conference debacle flared up today as a top issue likely to be kept boiling during the presidential campaign.
 Although both sides disclaimed any political motives, a Senate explosion Monday over the term "appeaser" apparently triggered a Democratic-Republican battle over foreign policy that might last till November.
 Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) expressed surprise at what he called a "violent partisan attack" in the Senate on Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Adlai E. Stevenson.
 The Senate Foreign Relations Committee headed by Fulbright decides today whether to conduct closed-door hearings on the events leading up to collapse of the scheduled Big Four summit meeting in Paris last week.
 Subject to expected committee approval, Fulbright invited Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Allen W. Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, to appear later in the week. He wants them to explain, among other matters, why an American spy plane was sent over the Soviet Union shortly before the scheduled opening of the Paris meeting.
 Like some Republicans in Congress, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said Monday there is a "clear and compelling need to face the facts" of the summit failure. But he cautioned both sides to avoid "a clash of absurd partisan absolutes."
 Kennedy, a leading contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, told the Senate that Democrats will continue to discuss and criticize foreign policies of the Eisenhower administration with which they disagree.

 "It is our function and responsibility," he said. "We propose to do it. I would think the Democratic party would be unworthy of its opportunities and responsibilities if it did not fulfill that function."
 Kennedy called Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) to account for suggesting that he and Stevenson, a possible rival for the nomination, ought to "relieve themselves of the gross suspicion of appeasement" because of their statements on the conference breakdown.
 Kennedy conceded that, in replying to a question at a Portland, Ore., political rally, he had said it might have been possible for President Eisenhower to have met Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand for an apology for the plane incident.
 But he said he had immediately added that if Khrushchev had merely asked the President to express regret "that might have been a more reasonable term."
 "I do not have to purge myself of any suspicion of appeasement," Kennedy told Scott tartly. "No one deduced from my statement that I wanted the President to apologize to Khrushchev."
 Kennedy said the spy plane incident "has destroyed the chances of a successful summit. It has destroyed the prestige of the President in the eyes of the Russian people. It has given the impression that the President does not dominate some of the military or some of his intelligence officers."
 "So I would have expressed regret. That does not make me in-

Lisbon To Get New Building

Food Firm Will Use Business Structure

LISBON — Contracts are to be let early next month for construction of a modern business structure on E. Lincoln Way between Jefferson and Chestnut Sts., Carl N. Turk of Signal reported.
 Turk, who announced the commercial project at a meeting of Council Monday night, said some three or four present buildings on the site are to be torn down and a commercial building — to house a national chain food store — will be erected.
 Turk said another structure for a national chain tire outlet is also being contemplated later.
 Turk, a real estate developer and coal lease handler, said the structures now on the tract include the Lehman Used Cars — former Lincoln Theater, the Dean Senefes Top Head Bar, the Frank Walsh garage and apartments, the Leonard Warner property of an apartment building and individual home and part of the Ralph Cook property.
 Purchase of the properties by Turk was made some time ago, and he has been making plans for the supermarket store with the national representatives.
 Turk said the new building will be 70-x-141 feet of steel and concrete block construction faced with a straw-colored brick. It will be one-story and of a modern design.
 Turk, brother of Mike Turk of East Liverpool, said the investment will be approximately $200,000.

Conway Rail Workers Accept Injunction Step

BEAVER — Federal Judge Rabe F. Marsh at Pittsburgh Monday made permanent a temporary injunction which sent 500 strikers back to work at the Conway Yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

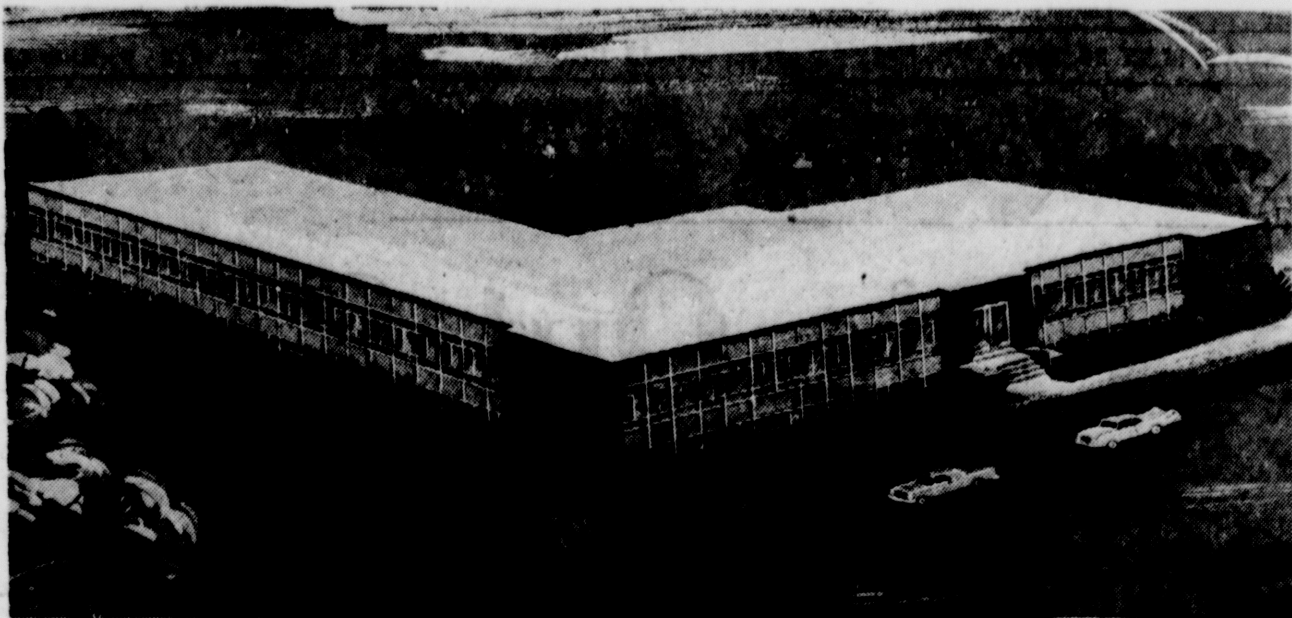

The judge acted with the consent of Local 2035 of the Transport Workers Union.
 When the temporary ban against "continuous meetings" or work stoppages was issued last Tuesday, the union said it would not object to making the order permanent if PRR Vice President Morton Smith would meet representatives of the local to discuss grievances.
 The meeting was held yesterday, a railroad spokesman announced, but neither side reported what transpired.

Fund Reports Made

Osteopathic Hospital Drive Extended To June 3

The Board of Trustees of the Osteopathic Hospital announced at the campaign report meeting Monday night at the First Methodist Church that the drive for funds to expand the institution, as shown here, has been extended to June 3.

The hospital on W. 6th St. is conducting a public subscription for $150,000 for a three-year building program to expand from 26 to 50 beds, along with $41,000 pledged by the doctors' staff.

Dr. C. M. Mayberry, a member of the board, said an extension of the campaign was deemed necessary because less than 50 per cent of the cards listing prospective donors have been turned into the drive headquarters by the 175 workers making calls.

The teams reported last night that 262 have pledged $81,866. The advance gifts division, under the chairmanship of Frank Dawson, James H. Riggs and John B. McDonald, has raised 45 per cent of its goal, and the general gifts division, headed by Alvin Babb, Charles Taylor and Dean Wilhelm, has reached 35 per cent of its goal.

Are you tired of paying the same auto insurance premiums each year —with no reward for accident-free driving? Then you'll be interested in Nationwide's exclusive SAFE-T-RATE plan—the newest idea in auto insurance. Here's a completely new method of setting your auto rates—based on your own driving record.

Here's how it works: you enter the plan at a rate determined by your previous driving history—let's say that's $100 a year. If you maintain an accident-free record, your rate drops a specific amount each year; from $100 to $95 . . . $91 . . . $85 and finally to $81. Here it stays—unless there is a general rate revision or you have an accident.* One accident puts you back to the base rate of $100; additional ones push your premium above the entry rate. But, at any point, you can begin again to reduce your rate by safe driving.

Find out how much you can save with SAFE-T-RATE. Mail the coupon below today. (Note: If you're already a present Nationwide policyholder, there's no change in your policy. If you're interested in SAFE-T-RATE, see your Nationwide representative for full details.)

*If no accident in last 3 years, you enter at base rate as described above.
*An accident is defined as any accident or loss reported to Nationwide—except any loss reported involving only comprehensive coverage, or loss reported under Comprehensive Family Liability (an optional coverage in auto policies.)

Opening Of New Finch-Tregoff Trial Is Preview

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The opening of the second Finch-Tregoff murder trial proved to be just a preview.

Carole Tregoff, 23, slim and chic, and her lover, Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, were on hand Monday. But the trial was recessed until Thursday so the state supreme court can rule on whether the defense can challenge the new judge as prejudiced.

The state contends that Carole, an ex-model, and her wealthy lover ambushed the doctor's wife, Barbara, 36, last July. Their first trial ended in a hung jury after three months of often lurid testimony.

Carole has shed most of the 30 pounds she picked up on starched jail food. She is free on $25,000 bail.

Carole's attorneys claimed, without specifying why, that Superior Court Judge Leroy Dawson is prejudiced. He denied it and the attorneys appealed.

Public Reaction Waited

County Planning Group Proposed

Public sentiment is being sounded out on establishment of a Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission, an organization that would hire a professional to plan for orderly co-ordinated growth of rural areas, co-operating with any incorporated city or village that wished to participate.

As part of a program to explain the proposed agency to interested groups throughout the county, Dean Wilhelm and William A. Black, representing the Calcutta Area Improvement Association, met Monday night with the civic and community affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

COUNTY commissioners, already approached about the need for regional planning, have indicated they will write funds into the 1961 budget to get the plan rolling if sufficient public interest is shown.

Black and Wilhelm — also members of the Chamber — told the committee.

The committee voted to pass on to the Chamber's Board of Trustees the proposal from Wilhelm and Black that the Chamber "endorse and support" the idea of regional planning.

Establishment of the new public agency would entail hiring a professional planner to prepare a long-range overall program covering such items as water supply and conservation, sewage service, recreation facilities, new highway construction, industrial potential and commercial and residential land use, the two explained.

ALTHOUGH they appeared as representatives of the Calcutta group, both men also are East Liverpool civic leaders. Black is district manager of the Ohio Power Co. and Wilhelm is president of the Economy Manufacturing Co. County commissioners and any one incorporated community which has its own planning commission may establish regional planning under Ohio law, the two pointed out.

That would make the new agency eligible for state aid that would absorb approximately 50 percent of the cost, they explained. The aid is administered through the new Ohio Department of Economic and Industrial Development.

Although costs can only be estimated at present, a countywide program probably would figure out to about 25 cents per capita per year, Wilhelm and Black said.

Despite establishment of county-wide planning, a city planning commission such as the one in East Liverpool would remain a separate entity dealing with strictly local problems, they pointed out. No incorporated community would become part of the regional planning group unless it petitioned to join, they added.

City Collisions Damage Autos

Seven autos and a truck were damaged in four East Liverpool traffic mishaps Monday afternoon, police reported. No one was injured.

A collision at Broadway and E. 6th St. at 4:08 damaged a parked 1949 truck operated by George M. Webber, 35, of 1077 Claiborne Ave. and a 1951 sedan driven by George D. Poling, 57, of Dresden Ave., officers said.

Poling told police he was traveling south on Broadway and attempted a left turn into a service station when his car struck the truck, which was parked at the station driveway.

A mishap on E. 4th St. 40 feet west of Crook Alley at 1:47 damaged 1955 sedans driven by Larry C. Clark, 40, of 234 W. Church Ln. and Leonard Franklin, 39, of Youngstown, police said. Clark said he was traveling east on E. 4th when Franklin opened the street-side door of his parked car. There was damage to the left front door of Franklin's car and the right front fender of Clark's auto, officers said.

A mishap at Elizabeth St. and Ohio Ave. at 12:10 damaged a 1957 sedan operated by Barbara Elliott, 29, of 2137 Ohio Ave. and a 1959 sedan operated by Mary M. Sablack, 18, of 2034 Ohio Ave., officers said.

A 1959 sedan driven by Fred A. McCoy, 38, of Denmore Ave. and a 1956 coupe operated by Ralph E. Miller, 52, of 1228 Commerce St., Wellsville, were damaged slightly in a mishap at 4:46 on Elizabeth St., police said. McCoy said he halted for a car ahead and his auto was struck from the rear by Miller's.

Charles Liston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Liston, is in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital with injuries of the chest and spine received when the auto lurched over on him at the home close to Route 30 about a mile east of Laughlins Corners.

He was apparently removing the transmission with the aid of a friend when the mishap occurred about 7. The companion ran to the home, and Mrs. Ann Majzik of Center Township, a niece of Mrs. Liston, rushed to Route 30 and flagged down some passing motorists who helped lift the auto off the boy.

The boy, who formerly attended South Side High School, was to have reported for a painting job today. He was injured about three weeks ago when in a stalled auto which was struck from behind on Route 30 near Laughlins Corners.

City Man Goes Back To Jail In Violation

Elmer Clarence Hashman, 42, of 310 Market St., was resentenced to the County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin after he violated terms of his probation.

Hashman was sentenced Nov. 16 for non-support but was released a few days afterwards on condition he pay for support of his wife and seven children.

He paid only $100 since and was involved in a case in which a 15-year-old boy jumped out a second-story window when frightened.

Judge Tobin said he could serve the remainder of his sentence in the County Jail and then bound him over to Grand Jury under $2,500 bond for non-support.

City Man Takes Post In Bank At Waterford

The World Will Be Listening

Not since Franklin Roosevelt made his inaugural address on a dismal March day in 1932 will a President have been assured of a more attentive audience than Dwight Eisenhower will have when he gives his version of the fall-out with the Soviet Union.

The world will be listening. It will want to know how the man who is the 20th century's most powerful symbol of good will among men and harmony among nations looks at the bleak prospect of rising tension and an eventual clash of international power blocs.

It will want to be reassured that the national leader with the longest tenure in the Western Hemisphere has emerged from the Paris debacle with a plan for the future.

It will want to know what the harsh disappointment of Russia's brusque return to intransigence has done to Dwight Eisenhower's morale—whether there is something he can tell them that will prove he still has as much confidence in himself as they are willing to bestow on him.

THE SPIRIT of Camp David now has evaporated without trace, as the spirit of Geneva evaporated five years ago. In 1955, when the Geneva Summit was over, President Eisenhower could say with candor that each side had assured the other earnestly and often that it intended to pursue a new spirit of conciliation and cooperation.

Last fall, when the Camp David meeting was over, President Eisenhower stressed the fact he and Premier Khrushchev had been able to talk to each other without being abusive—that the old standoff hostility that had hampered relations was not a handicap any more.

But after Geneva came the disastrous meeting of the foreign ministers. The spirit of Geneva was not present there and never was present again. And after Camp David came the Paris Summit, when Nikita Khrushchev refused even to recognize his new-found friend from Camp David days.

Every American and every friend of America wonders now what the President's official appraisal of the free world's position is going to be. The British have heard Prime Minister Macmillan's version . . . difficult days are ahead. The French will hear President De Gaulle's version. Americans will hear Dwight Eisenhower's version.

OUT OF THE blasted hopes of the Paris debacle must come a new concept of leadership in the struggle to offset Russian expansionism and the Communist conspiracy's tireless meddling in the affairs of other nations.

In the nature of international politics, the United States stand responsible for making the key assertions and implementing the key decisions.

Mr. Eisenhower and the men who help prepare his public pronouncements will be needing to do their work well. They will have history's largest audience.

Unions Feud Over Missile Care

By Victor Riesel

This will pierce Pentagon silence. But the awesome fact is that within a few days there will be six city-killer, 6-300-mile intercontinental ballistic missiles ready for instant firing at key enemy targets.

These pieces of hurtling devastation will be "on the alert" at the first ICBM site at Warren Air Force Base some 25 miles out of Cheyenne, Wyo. The "birds" will rest in underground installations. They'll be cared for and nursed like incubator babies on special formulas.

One spot of dirt the size of a pinhead or a blob of oil in the parts can blow the bird to pieces in flight, so antiseptically clean must the rockets be kept.

BUT THE STORY here today is not of summits, rocketry or strategy. This is a report on the battle of the underground—a struggle between two blocs of unions over power to keep the bird healthy and ever-ready for instant flight. This is the newest development in the newest era of labor relations in the third year of the space age and brain machinery now slowly remaking the pattern of American labor.

It is the claim of the influential three-million member AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Union, led by Walter Reuther and the International Assn. of Machinists, led by Al Hayes, to "cut the underground from beneath them."

The union coalition under Reuther's and Hayes' direction, wants its members to take over the care of the birds' sub-surface cages.

This bloc points out that its members make and assemble the rockets in such plants as Convair, Martin, Lockheed, North American and Douglas.

These aircraft firms have contracted with the government to service the underground nests.

THIS NOW REQUIRES only a few hundred men. But soon there will be thousands. The Reuther-Hayes group says that since its members are under contract to the aircraft and rocket firms, they should also maintain the underground.

The Building Trades Council says that there is no precedent for such a "raid" on its jurisdiction. But the council says it is more than just defending a jurisdiction which has always belonged to it. It is a matter of skills needed by the nation's defenses.

The council is going to fight any incursion by the Reuther-Hayes people. The Construction Trades people quietly made their plans last week after seeing a special motion picture produced by the government and one of the aircraft companies.

The council viewed the film at one of its executive board meetings in Washington's Hotel Hamilton. The former AFL Construction Unions made the point that they are accustomed to handling metal absolutely cleansed of all dirt.

They've been working with oxygen tanks for years. They noted that the tens of thousands of parts in each rocket come in special individual plastic bags. This goes for the tiniest part. If the seal on any bag is broken, the component is rejected.

FURTHERMORE, each of the missiles must be taken down every few months. It is cleaned and then reassembled.

Peter Schoemann, quiet-spoken leader of the Plumbers, wants no civil war inside labor but he told his colleagues that this type of maintenance can only be handled by the Construction Trades and they cannot retreat from that position.

If the missiles are to be operative, there must be round-the-clock crews of military personnel on eight-hour shifts and they must be supported by civilian technicians.

The underground units beneath each covering "shed" must also be maintained as any other building. They are equipped with air-conditioning units and deep freezes for food supplies.

They also have complete electrical wiring which connects the "brain" console to the required automatic machinery, such as that which opens the shed and moves other equipment into place for firing.

The Construction Trades Council states that this is clearly within its area of scarce new skills and old traditions.

The feud is bitter. It is hoped that David Cole, impartial umpire of the AFL-CIO no-raiding pact—to whom the Warren Air Force Base conflict already has been referred—can settle it. He has the talents and virtues of King Solomon.

But the battle of the underground may have gone far beyond even mediation powers. I'll have to leave this like a cliff-hanger. It's only the beginning.

Six women returning home from work, plus an irresponsible, playful truck driver, plus authorities who "couldn't (or wouldn't) do anything" and what have you?

We, the undersigned, were returning to Chester from our work at Plant 2 of The National Church Supply Co. on Route 30 back of Chester. We noticed a truck so close to our bumper it was almost touching us. The trucker was waving his hands as though in trouble. Thinking his brakes had failed, we went off the side of the road with such force that we very easily could have turned over. We were all panic-stricken at the thought of an empty car carrier truck out of control and smashing into us.

Our fear was nothing compared to our anger when the driver drove first from one side of the highway and then to the other, then turning in his seat and waving as though inviting us to race.

Anyone going east on Route 30 would have been in just as great danger as we had been. We followed him into Chester and asked Police Chief Harold Davis if we could swear out a warrant for his arrest. We were informed of his lack of jurisdiction outside the city limits, that he hadn't witnessed the incident and that there was no justice of the peace available at the moment to make out a warrant for the trucker's arrest. We asked Mr. Davis to hold the trucker until we called Sheriff Clayton Hobbs. While one of us was calling Mr. Hobbs, who said the trucker should be held, Chief Davis sent him on his way. We might add that the trucker waved as he went over First St. and out of our sight, perhaps to "play" along another road and cause a real tragedy.

We contacted the mayor, though we realized he had no jurisdiction outside the city limits. We were assured he would be at the office of the justice of the peace at the time we were to swear out our warrant.

We arrived at the appointed time but aside from the J. P. we were the only ones present. Chief Davis, upon being called for information, had not even gotten the trucker's name and we were told by the justice of the peace that Chief Davis himself could have made the arrest since he is acting constable since the death of Constable John Allison.

Thanks to an honest justice of the peace, we were able to swear out a warrant for the trucker's arrest if and when he comes through Chester again. Perhaps it will be to no avail, but on the other hand it may save a real tragedy.

If the people, the city officials and the police were closer together and the authorities were more interested in prevention of tragedies, perhaps there would be many less real tragedies on the Route 30 hill back of Chester.

Strange Coincidence

By David Lawrence

Mr. K. Paraphrases Stevenson Remarks

Does Nikita Khrushchev want to see Adlai Stevenson elected president of the United States in November so that he can negotiate a deal at the next summit conference?

Does Mr. Khrushchev hope that Mr. Stevenson, if not nominated, will be considered for the post of secretary of state in a Democratic administration, as Sen. Kennedy hinted the other day?

Why was Mr. Stevenson, in an interview published in Paris a week ago Sunday, quoted as favoring an allied retreat on the Berlin problem?

Why did Mr. Stevenson last Thursday night tell a political dinner meeting in Chicago that the administration has "helped make successful negotiations with the Russians — negotiations that are vital to our survival—impossible so long as they are in power"?

These questions are prompted by a strange sequence of circumstances. Thus on March 9 last the "New York Times" printed a press dispatch from Moscow which read:

"Soviet Premier Khrushchev has his own opinions about the United States' Democratic party's presidential possibilities, he revealed tonight."

"He put Adlai Stevenson at the top of his list in comments to Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco at a dinner. Mr. Khrushchev's rating of the Democrats: 'Mr. Stevenson: The best among United States politicians.'"

"Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts: Able but some reservations about his youthfulness."

"Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri: He's a 'good' man."

NO OTHER presidential aspirants were mentioned, not even Sen. Humphrey, who had once participated in a marathon conference of several hours with the Soviet Premier.

Mr. Stevenson also conferred at length with Mr. Khrushchev in Moscow and wrote articles about him but they did not contain any of the sting that the Minnesota senator included in his published remarks.

Mr. Stevenson, therefore, apparently is the favorite of Mr. Khrushchev, who has brushed aside the old rule of diplomacy that a foreign government must not interfere in the political campaigns of another country.

The Soviet Premier evidently thinks that Mr. Stevenson, as the titular head of the Democratic party, speaks for it.

But James A. Farley, former postmaster general in the cabinet of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and a former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has just issued a statement urging the Democratic party to repudiate Mr. Stevenson's speech of last Thursday night. Mr. Farley said in part:

"The unwarranted attack of Mr. Adlai E. Stevenson on the President's conduct of the summit negotiations, in my opinion, in no way represents the thinking of the Democratic party. . . . In his few remaining weeks as titular spokesman of the Democratic party he has indicated every reason why the Democratic party in convention should select a spokesman who speaks for it in fact.

"I can think of no more effective way of doing so than by a unanimous resolution of condemnation and repudiation of his absurd speech in Chicago as representing the views of the Democratic party."

THE STRANGEST episode of all, however, is the interview with Mr. Stevenson which Soviet Premier Khrushchev read in "Paris Press L'Intransigeant" just after his recent arrival in Paris.

That interview was written by Robert Boulay after a visit to Mr. Stevenson's home at Libertyville, Ill., where he said he spent an afternoon, together with other guests.

The article, with a streamer headline across the page, said that Adlai Stevenson had proposed virtually a retreat from Berlin and American troop withdrawal from Europe.

The published interview was a shock to Americans abroad, coming as it did just a few days before the summit conference was to open.

Evidently Mr. Khrushchev read it carefully, because in his own speech at East Berlin last Friday he paraphrased one of the points in the interview to charge that Chancellor Adenauer had succeeded "in worming his way to the post of secretary of state of the United States."

Mr. Boulay, in his interview, quotes Mr. Stevenson as having said:

"For 10 years there has not really been a secretary of state for American foreign policy. During that period the real American secretary of state has been German Chancellor Adenauer."

In other parts of the same interview, Mr. Stevenson is quoted as favoring American concessions, such as a substantial decrease in Allied troops in West Berlin.

He is reported to have declared also that he could foresee in the future the pulling of American forces out of Europe.

When asked whether there would be a change in American foreign policy after the November elections, Mr. Stevenson was quoted as having said: "There will be important changes in American foreign policy."

MR. STEVENSON last Tuesday denied ever having given any interview at all to any Paris newspaper. But he issued a statement to the "Chicago Daily News" the next day admitting that he had talked with Robert Boulay but calling the published interview incorrect.

He said it did not represent his views and that "the most charitable explanation of such irresponsibility, presumption and discourtesy is that his English was poor and my French no better."

In Paris, however, Americans who know Mr. Boulay say he writes and talks English very well and is a reliable reporter.

Just what did Mr. Stevenson really say to Mr. Boulay? Maybe all this is something for the Democrats in Congress to include in their investigation of recent events.

There is no doubt that an appeasement faction exists today inside the Democratic party and certainly Mr. Stevenson's speech—just four days before the all-important debate at the United Nations Security Council—helped to wreck bipartisan unity in this country.

Charmed Life Is Over

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The charmed part of President Eisenhower's life is over. For years the respect given him has been one of the miracles of American politics and international affairs.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev changed all that in a few days with one of the most ferocious attacks ever made by the head of one government against the top man in another.

Eisenhower was held in such high esteem at home and abroad that when something went wrong with his administration, the tendency had been to blame some subordinate, not him.

True, he has been criticized from time to time on such charges as lack of leadership or too much time spent playing golf or avoiding a firm stand on some issue. But these were not personal attacks. By following a rigid rule of never attacking anyone else that way, Eisenhower made it almost impossible for anyone to mount a personal attack on him.

Even Khrushchev, when he wanted to blast what he called American warmongers or aggressive capitalists, went out of his way to absolve Eisenhower.

The late Sen. Joseph McCarthy, no respecter of persons, stepped around Eisenhower gingerly even when he was attacking Eisenhower's administration.

The American people showed such respect for and trust in Eisenhower—by twice electing him overwhelmingly to the presidency—that the Democrats were rendered practically speechless when it came to criticism.

Then came the spy-plane incident. Even in its early stages Khrushchev was willing to absolve Eisenhower. Then the State Department stumbled over its feet, lied, then told the truth, and said Eisenhower had approved the aerial spying.

Before Khrushchev's vituperation was over he had likened the President to a thief and called him a fishy friend.

It was a mark of Eisenhower's emotional maturity that he was able to remain calm in Paris when the Soviet leader was trying to degrade him.

Perhaps Eisenhower, because he has a great backlog of personal discipline to call upon, can remain calm to the end and, through more alertness, prevent any more clumsy fumbling by his administration.

But now that the dam has been broken by Khrushchev, Eisenhower's remaining months in office may be increasingly unpleasant.

Others who have been restrained in dealing with Eisenhower may now feel free to cut loose. And the President may have more of a tendency to strike back at his critics.

The Once Over

Lexicon for the peace conference followers is needed, and we give it:

Relaxation of Tensions: Taking the rock out of glove before shaking hands.

Fruitful Discussions: Any half-hour chats beginning with no insults and ending without a cry of "Medic!"

Substantial Progress: Fourth down; 25 yards to go.

Marked progress: Fourth down; 19 yards to go.

Progress Toward Orderly Procedures: Deciding to use a lighter gavel.

Negotiation-Minded: Being inclined to say "Remember I wear glasses," to a cry of "You wanna make anything out of it?"

Agenda: Plan of combat operations with consecutive translations.

Next Half Way: Going no further than the rabbit punch when an opponent kicks you in kidneys.

Mood of Compromise: Inclination to say, "I resent that," instead of "One more word out of you and I'll poke you in the snoot."

War of Nerves: Process of smiling while cleaning a gun with the muzzle pointed the wrong way.

Dedication to Peace: Position of any delegate not opening speech with, "He pulled a knife on me."

Negotiating Through Strength: Buying a drink at summit cocktail bar as a prelude to, "Do you intend to bust up this meeting?"

Amicable Approach: Any approach not requiring Red Cross emblems, white flags or an agreement that the ambulances be doubled.

Peaceful Co-Existence: An interval without fright-wigs, indoor booby traps, nightmares or mutual recriminations; a situation in which the pugilists have not yet taken off their bathrobes.

Tangible Gains: War postponed on account of rain.

Reactionary Elements: Folks with a strong will to live and no permit smoking close to the gas tanks.

MOSCOW SPEAKS

His own spies roaming all the earth To snoop by hook or crook. The Papa Bear cries loudly, "FOUL," When others take a look.

He's spied for years the record shows With crude audacity.

But to an outside snoop or two He shrieks, "CAN SUCH THINGS BE!"

By wholesale do his peepers go—No "look-see" does he shrink:

But to a free world on the job He cries, "SUCH DIRTY WORK!"

At secret-snatching he's a champ—To him it is an art—

Yet to all others he can weep, "SUCH VILENESS BREAKS MY HEART!"

Next To Nature

The past weekend's Boy Scout camporee near Lisbon and upcoming camp sessions for young people at Tomlinson Run State Park, Pine Ridge and elsewhere underscore an important service by area youth programs.

Concrete highways, television and the demands of school schedules have placed nature at quite a distance for many youngsters except for occasional brief expeditions into thinning woodland areas of suburbia.

These longer camp sessions, starting as soon as warmer weather begins, provide basic learning or experiences for which they were designed — Scoutcraft, conservation, religious instruction or other purposes.

But they also put the young people into face-to-face contact with Mother Nature and the indescribable atmosphere of raw earth and trees and changing skies. A few days in the outdoors, rain or shine, give a youth a fundamental perspective on life which precludes selfishness, narrow-mindedness and superiority, and should give new meaning to the process of becoming an adult.

Gas Hike Gets First Reading At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — First reading of a gas rate ordinance providing increases was approved by Council at a meeting Monday night.

The ordinance was submitted by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., and includes a lower rate schedule than originally asked by the utility.

Paul Temple of Carrollton, representative of the company, said the firm "had come as close as possible to Council's proposals at the last meeting."

Joseph Cuning of the Madison Engineering Co. of Mansfield attended the meeting to provide information on the proposed sewage disposal plant for a representative of a bonding company who asked to meet with Council. However, the bonding firm agent did not arrive.

Cuning discussed the proposed sewage project, and suggested Salineville enact a sewage rate ordinance and permit the community to build up a fund for the project.

Council took under advisement requests from the Woodland Cemetery trustees to submit a 2-mill cemetery levy in the November election and to provide a $5 monthly salary to the cemetery trustees.

Councilman Homer Barcus reported Washington Township trustees have agreed to provide a shelterhouse at the jointly operated dump. He said the land is provided by the village.

Discussion was held on providing a bond issue to pay for a proposed radar speed check equipment, but Solicitor Warren Bettis reported he has found no authorization for such a bond issue.

Bettis said bond issues can be authorized for other equipment, but he could find none for radar.

Police Chief Cleo Mellott reported he had patrolled 1,381 miles and made 10 arrests in the period April 29-May 22. He said he issued 11 warnings and made 4 accident investigations.

Councilman Joseph Knight reported repairs are needed at a catchbasin near the home of Robert Wilson of Foundry Hill.

The next meeting will be June 13.

Waves

Thousands of panic-stricken villagers on the Philippine east coast fled to higher ground, and at least three provinces reported towns under water. But there were no immediate reports of casualties.

A wave peak of 15 feet was recorded at one point on the east coast of New Zealand. Dozens of small boats were swept away. Harbor storage sheds were lifted from their foundations. Seaside roads and gardens were flooded.

A running four-foot tide hit eastern Australia, ripping dozens of small craft and barges from their moorings in Sydney Harbor and washing away maritime beacons.

High tides also battered the north Formosa port of Keelung and broke up a timber raft which collapsed a 75-foot bridge spanning a canal.

The California coast was hit from Los Angeles to Oregon. Three persons were reported injured at Crescent City, in Northern California, where a wave pushed water three blocks into the town.

A wave 12½ feet high rolled in at Crescent City at 12:07 a. m. (PDT) today, smashing two fishing boats against the dock and flooding the dockside area with debris. Two other fishing boats were capsized.

Damage was most extensive in the Los Angeles-Long Beach and San Diego areas. The Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor was closed to all shipping because of drifting debris and floating small craft, torn from moorings. The Coast Guard estimated 30 small boats were sunk and possibly 400 damaged.

Far to the north, a 14-15 foot wave rolled against Montague Island, near Cordova, Alaska, injuring several persons and causing some damage.

Newell Squire Fines 2 For Motor Violations

Morgan Fulmer of Drain St., East Liverpool was cited for improper passing by Deputy Clayton Stine of the Hancock County sheriff's office in New Cumberland.

Arguments Scheduled In Murder Conviction

BEAVER — Arguments on the appeal of a death sentence by Arthur G. Schuck, convicted in the "mistaken identity" ambush slayings of two Beaver County men, will be held Thursday before the State Supreme Court in Philadelphia.

The case originally was assigned for Monday in Harrisburg before the court changed the assignment. No ruling is expected until after the court considers the arguments.

any way a party to appeasement. "I have never abused the President personally I do not advocate a policy which I think would weaken the United States."

The criticism of Stevenson stemmed from a purported interview with him published in the French newspaper French-Press just before the date of the summit meeting. It quoted him as favoring concessions on Berlin, reduction of American forces there and a pullback and cutback in both East and West forces in central Europe.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said the published interview may have helped torpedo the summit meeting.

Stevenson, who had at first denied giving the interview, said he had talked with the French reporter but contended the reporter "evidently confused discussion with opinion." Stevenson added, "What he reports me as saying have, of course, never been my views and are not my views today."

Scott insisted he hadn't called either Kennedy or Stevenson an appeaser, and after lengthy wrangling said he was willing to abide by Kennedy's interpretation of his own statement.

The parade will move at 9 a. m. from the Legion home, halting on the Village Square for a short ceremony at the VFW plaque. It will proceed to Lisbon Cemetery via N. Market St. and Jerome St.

Council Starts Ordinance For Gas Rate Hike

LISBON — Council Monday night gave first reading to an ordinance to raise gas rates 7.8 per cent by a vote of 4-2. Voting to give the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. a rate increase were Robert Lowery, Robert Kelm, Fred Steele and Joseph Dornon. Mrs. Blanche Neill and Raymond Dixon were opposed.

The new rates would be: 25 cents per hundred cubic feet for the first 2,000 cubic feet.

7.15 cents per hundred cubic feet for the next 98,000 cubic feet. 6.75 cents per hundred cubic feet for all in excess of 100,000 cubic feet.

A minimum charge of $2.50 per month for each customer not to exceed 12 months.

Present rates are: First 800 cubic feet, 25.35 cents per hundred; next 4,200 cubic feet, 8.35 cents per hundred; next 95,000 cubic feet, 7.85 cents per hundred; next 100,000 cubic feet, 7.35 cents per hundred and all over 200,000 cubic feet 6.85 cents per hundred.

Seven residents attended with three voicing their opinions on the new gas rates. Council said it feels that if they don't pass it consumers may have to pay more as these rates are based on 1958 costs and they will run for 4 years. If the rates are left to the Public Utilities Commission decided, the utility might be lowered to bring the costs up to date. Courtney Pennell, Lisbon manager of the gas company, spoke in the company's behalf.

Carl M. Turk of Signal, representing the Carl M. Turk Enterprises for real estate development and coal leases, presented a petition to vacate an alley running east and west from Jefferson St., between E. Lincoln Way and Chestnut St.

He informed Council that he has purchased all the land and buildings on the alley north and south from E. Lincoln Way to Chestnut, except the Catanzarite property, and he expects to put up two new buildings. One has been leased to a food retailing business and the other a new business.

Council instructed City Solicitor Joseph Barozzi to prepare an ordinance for action at the next meeting June 13.

Catanzarite urged that the alley not be vacated but Council replied that he has three exits from the back of his garages to the main streets. The vote was 5-1 with Dixon opposed.

An ordinance raising the salary of Clerk Edgar Kirk of the Board of Public Affairs, from $270 to $310 per month, was given second reading. Passed as an emergency measure was a resolution to provide new offices for the Board of Public Affairs in the village hall. The board now is in with the volunteer fireman.

Dixon reported that the three village street employees had requested a pay raise and 4 paid holidays — New Year's, July 4, Labor Day and Christmas.

Mayor Dean Stockman referred the request to the street and fireman committees. Dixon also reported speeding and truck traffic on back streets. Mayor Stockman will contact the police department on the complaints.

Steele reported that the Pool Commission had to purchase 12 new filters for the Sadie VanFossan Swimming Pool at a cost of $350, plus $72 for cloth. He said the commission has requested that three outside doors be replaced or repaired.

Kelm reported for the finance committee and said savings must be made to keep the village from "running into the red" this year. He requested reduced hours for the dump attendant and require that the park custodian work at the pool and public square.

All expenditures over $25 now must be cleared through the Mayor's office and those for over $250 will require Council sanction. The general fund contains only $15,000, about half of what it was at this time last year, the committee found.

Council is also considering a proposed levy on the fall ballot to operate the village since it does not now receive fines from State Patrol cases and the village thus loses over $20,000 per year.

Lower requested purchase of hats, coats and boots for three new village firemen. No action was taken pending an estimate.

Council decided to meet only once a month during the summer and the next will be June 13 at 7:30 p. m.

Raise In Water Rates Proposed At Weirton

WEIRTON — The city has asked the Public Service Commission for permission to raise water rates to its 7,830 customers in Brooke and Hancock Counties by $100,000 a year.

Under the proposed new scale, this would average out to about $13 more per customer a year. The city explained that it needs the rate increase for necessary improvements to its water system.

The city had asked that the rates become effective July 1, but the PSC suspended the new rate schedule until Sept. 30 and set a hearing on the case for Oct. 26.

Weirton plans to issue $1,600,000 worth of bonds to pay for the extensive improvements.

Ballot Recount Death Penalty Reset Tonight May Be Asked For Ex-Nazi

Because of graduation exercises held Monday night in Chester High School, Hancock County commissioners who were to continue recounting ballots cast in the May 10 primary recessed until tonight at 7 in the County Courthouse in New Cumberland.

The recount was asked earlier by Sen. Herbert Traubert of Follansbee, who apparently was defeated by 56 votes for renomination as state senator from the 1st Senatorial District by William Tompos of Weirton.

The unofficial count from first returns gave Tompos a margin of 10,951 to 10,895. However, after canvassing of ballots in Hancock, Brooke and Ohio Counties, and a partial recount in Hancock, Tompos has a lead of 64 votes.

Commissioners have recounted ballots in 5 precincts in Tompos' home county of Hancock, including 13, 34, 17, 18 and 19. Sen. Traubert was seeking his fourth consecutive term on the Democratic ticket.

The recount in Hancock is being conducted by William C. Graham of Chester, Grant District commissioner, and Lyle F. Virden of New Cumberland in Clay District.

Death Penalty May Be Asked For Ex-Nazi

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli legal experts today said the death penalty may be asked for Adolf Eichmann, former Hitler official charged with the extermination of six million Jews.

Israel Monday announced the 54-year-old war criminal's arrest after a hunt of more than 14 years and said he would be tried here. He was brought into a Jaffa court and arraigned.

Premier David Ben-Gurion told Parliament Eichmann would be tried under terms of Israel's law for the trial of Nazis and their collaborators.

The Premier gave no details of the arrest of the man who was a top aide to Heinrich Himmler, boss of the dread Nazi Gestapo. Eichmann vanished in the confusion at the end of the war and was subsequently reported in several Latin American countries, in Australia, in Switzerland and last October in the Middle East. The British hunted for him, and he was also wanted for murder in West Germany.

Although no details were released on Eichmann's arrest it was learned he had been caught in Israel. The Ministry of Justice said he readily admitted his identity and asked for legal counsel.

Even with the addition of Alaska and Hawaii, the area of the United States is some 200,000 square miles less than Canada.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Something must be done to save my sister's child but I don't know how to go about it.

Blanche was left a widow when her son was 18 months old. Her husband was well off and left her a lot of money.

I first sensed something was wrong when Blanche brought the boy to my son's birthday party. Curtice was 4 then. She had him dressed in an organdy pinafore and he wore a pink hair-bow in his uncut golden curls. He looked more feminine than some of the little girls.

Curtice is almost 9 now. He seems to like to play ball with the boys at school and gets along fine with his classmates. But at home his mother makes him wear frilly dresses and gives him dolls to play with. Last year she took him on a trip in girls' clothes and called him "Karen."

I broached the subject recently when I saw nail polish on the boy. Blanche said, "There's nothing wrong with it. Girls dress like boys these days and no one thinks a thing of it." Please tell me what to do.—WORRIED AUNT.

Dear Worried: If Blanche thinks it's "all right" to dress a 9-year-old boy in girls' dresses she should have a talk with a head doctor or two. They will set her straight promptly.

It's too bad Blanche didn't marry and get some male influence in the house. This boy will be ruined for life unless someone steps in and insists that his mother get professional help. She has a geranium in her cranium.

No Cheap Romance

Dear Ann: I'm 20 and head over heels in love with a fellow 22. He married a girl because she got in a family way or purpose to hook him. If he had been a rat instead of a first-class gentleman he would have left her flat.

Syd promised to marry me when his son starts school which will be in three years. I'm willing to wait but my parents insist I move out of the house if I continue to see him. They say they won't allow their home to be used as headquarters for a trashy affair. How can I make them see that this is not just a cheap romance? Please help me, Ann—SHARON.

Dear Sharon: You're half right—this is not just a cheap romance. It's going to be a very costly one. Costly for you, if you don't stop seeing this man. He's married and therefore out of bounds. Your folks have a right to object to a married man's coming to the house to court their daughter. Regardless of the circumstances, a married man is bad news and you'll be labeled a homewrecker if you continue to see him.

House Wreckers

Dear Ann: Our friends had a surprise house-warming party in our new home and it was a very "spirited" evening, if you know what I mean. Several people got thoroughly plastered and unfortunately there was considerable damage done to the wallpaper, a lamp, a couple of tables and the carpeting.

My mother came over the next day and was appalled at the looks of the place. (I hadn't had a chance to clean it up.) She said the people who had caused the damage should be billed for same. Her suggestion was that the damage be added up and each of the guests be billed, percentage-wise. I'd rather die than do this. My husband thinks it's a good idea. What do you think?—SURPRISED.

Dear Surprised: Guests should not be asked to pay for the damage done on a social visit. However, I do suggest new friends.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Light Turnout Expected Today In Kentucky Vote

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—

Balmy weather and short ballots greeted Kentucky voters today.

But the congressional primaries lacked political luster and a light turnout was expected.

Most interest was in the race between Keen Johnson and John Y. Brown for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

The winner likely will face Republican incumbent Sen. John Sherman Cooper, who faced only token opposition from Thurman J. Hamlin.

Observers viewed the Johnson-Brown race as the first political popularity test of Gov. Bert Combs' administration.

Johnson has Combs' backing; Brown has the support of the governor's political foe, former Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Brown, a prominent Lexington criminal lawyer, has close ties with organized labor, especially in the eastern Kentucky coal fields.

Johnson, known for his frugality as Kentucky governor from 1939-43, is an executive of Reynolds Metals Co.

Dieter Hits 150-Pound Barrier

Our Mystery-Dieter is a stand-patter this week. This is the fourth report from the Teen-Age overweight who is serving as our model. She is 5 feet

6 tall, 17 years old, and weighed in at 154 pounds. In three weeks she has lost 4 pounds and 4 inches. She reports:

"The scales pointed to 150 again this week, but I am not worried for almost always at this time of the month I gain two pounds, but they are quickly gone as this special time ends."

"It's really wonderful to report to you that the third week of diet is much easier than the second, and now I feel thoroughly stuffed if I eat a bit more than the slimming pattern in the Teen-Age Challenge Diet."

"NOW IT IS easier to say to a tantalizing dessert. 'Maybe you do look tasty, but who cares?' Next week is the time when I can wear that sheath dress, and you're not going to stand in my way."

"Ida Jean, how does this sound for a solution to the special occasion eating plan? I try to plan ahead so that I can 'save up' to have a calorie capital account to draw on. Then, when a special occasion arrives I feel free to eat. 'The measurements are much the same as last week, but some are different: Bust 37, arm 12 1/2, waist 26 1/2, abdomen 33 1/2, hips 41, thigh 24, calf 14 1/2. Do you think that when my hips are reduced my bust should be reduced, perhaps by exercise?"

The calorie bookkeeping system our Mystery Dieter has devised is excellent. It makes for fun and flexibility on a slimming program. It is safer to save up for an occasion than it is to borrow against the future. Always keep score, otherwise you are apt to feel "I may as well go whole hog." Not No!

To break the pound barrier, this week at dinner, get up from the dinner table before you get that comfortably full feeling. Tighten your belt a notch... stop stuffing and you'll hasten slimming.

It is normal for the scales to register a gain at a particular time of the month due to water retention in the tissues. Stay with the slimming fare and the pointer will plunge with pleasing suddenness.

THE BUST measurement will normalize as excess pounds are lost. When your curves are about right for your size, you will probably not lose more than one inch through this measurement. Exercise helps to tone and support only.

Cheers for the lost inches on hips and thighline. Congratulations on your daily exercise session. Overweight Child May Grow Up Obese

Do overweight children become overweight adults? In "The Nation's Children," a report of the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth (Volume 2, page 34, Dr. Stanley M. Garn, anthropologist and expert, writes:

"A recent study has shown that 80 per cent of overweight children in one community became overweight adults... and, today, an increasing proportion of our juvenile population appears to be becoming fat." Reasons pointed out by the report:

FOOD SUPPLEMENTS, largely sugars, doled out by parents; consumption of chocolate milk which is largely flavored by corn syrup; drinking of water being replaced by sugared milk, juices and carbonated water, snack-eating before radio and TV which has become ritualized; few safe places for play in our larger cities and fewer things to do in expanding suburbia.

"The car-pool and the school bus reduce the energy expenditure, and the ranch house no longer provides caloric expenditure in climbing stairs to climb," the report points out.

With the hazards of obesity widely known, there's increasing evidence that heart and artery diseases, especially hardening of the arteries, "far from being exclusive," are becoming a major health problem.

It seems to me that the prevailing theory and practice of excessive permissiveness with young children is the biggest single contributor to obesity.

More on this tomorrow. My bulletins, "How to Teach Child Meaning of No" and "Love and Restraint," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

TV Wins Orchid For Summit Coverage

The explosive news events of last week deprived network men of sleep, drained their tills, played havoc with their schedules and probably made them ear sore from the anguished cries of sponsors whose shows were pre-empted for the summit coverage.

But whatever the stresses, there should be little doubt at the networks this week that their efforts have earned them a reprieve from the buffeting in Washington and the criticism leveled at them since the quiz show mess last October.

PESSIMISTS predicted it would take the industry a minimum of two years to recover from the quiz adversity and the revelations that ensued. But in many quarters the feeling is that television amply atoned for past sins all in one week.

While it's too early for the networks for bringing the summit events into the nation's living rooms, rough estimates place the figure at half a million dollars exclusive of preemption costs, which will amount to another small fortune.

NBC alone had a staff of 32 in Paris, plus another dozen or so men at Idlewild Airport to process video tape as it arrived by jet, plus two-way radio circuits and other electronic marvels that enabled the country to see and hear a blow-by-blow account of the summit conference that never was.

THE COVERAGE was in the best tradition of public affairs programming, and the networks, we see, already have begun to savor the rewards of a job well done.

Viewers are generally lax when it comes to registering appreciation, but in phone calls and letters to NBC, CBS and ABC, according to network spokesmen, the public has responded with a collective "thank you."

More significant, not a protest has been registered by even die-hard devotees of the shows that were pre-empted, among them "Riverboat," "The Texan," "The Jack Paar Show" and "People Are Funny."

If there's a lesson to be learned from the events of the week, it would be that television, like marriage, is a give-and-take proposition.

"THERE ISN'T too much opportunity for creativity left in a role you've played for six years," decided Dennis Weaver, the limping "Chester" of the top-rated "Gunsmoke" series, whereupon he announced his resignation. Other members of the cast — Jim Arness, Amanda Blake and Milburn Stone — will remain with the show another three years (by contractual agreement) while Weaver attempts to flex his acting muscles in non-Western areas.

Color programming on NBC will total 920 hours this year, a 27 percent increase over 1959. "Goodyear Theater" has resurrected one of the rare TV films made by the late Errol Flynn ("The Golden Shanty" for showing June 6). Kate Smith will introduce in her May 23 show a number called "Upon My Lips a Song," with words and lyrics by Jackie Gleason — yes, the one and only! NBC will acknowledge the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scouts July 30 with a full-hour documentary telecast on "World Wide 60." The host will be Herb Shriner, always a good scout.

TAKING a forward look, the National Parent-Teacher, official PTA magazine, lists as next season's better TV promises: "CBS' proposed filming of a modern-dress 'Julius Caesar,' a weekly slot for 'Candid Camera,' a series of hour-long specials on new developments in science under the title of 'tomorrow' and a series of children's shows based on classic adventure stories.

"From ABC, the 'bright prospects' include two Biblical dramas to be filmed in Israel and a series based on the memoirs of Sir Winston Churchill."

But the magazine was caught with its deadline down on the Churchill show. The series has been moved to the 1961 schedule at ABC for a couple of reasons — the lengthy writers' strike and insufficient sponsorship.

Police Chief Testifies In Murder Trial

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Testimony of a police official concerning the love affair of Floyd E. Hargrove and Mrs. Lois Clark was followed Monday by a court recess.

Defense attorney Louis A. Turi Jr. asked for and got a consultation with the prosecution and Presiding Judge W. S. Slocum during the examination of Mentor Police Chief Frank D. Hahy.

Hargrove is charged in the Christmas Eve sniper slaying of Charles Clark of Mentor.

Turi told newsmen the talks concerned "procedure" on the giving and acceptability of "certain testimonies."

Hargrove told newsmen that he "confessed the first time" because certain investigators had told him that if he didn't, all details concerning his relationship with Mrs. Clark would be revealed during a trial.

Mrs. Clark, the shooting victim's beautiful widow, and her daughter, Carol, 12, one of four Clark children, have been ordered to appear in court today. Hahy also was scheduled to resume testifying.

Hahy Monday corrected testimony he had given Friday, when he said he did not take the death bullet to the Cleveland police laboratory for testing. When examined by Turi, he said he had forgotten that trip until reminded of it by his wife during the weekend recess.

Hahy also admitted that he did not mark the bullet for identification until Dec. 29, five days after it was removed from Clark's skull.

Couple Pleads Guilty To Denying Child Food

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drabish of suburban Bedford, who had been indicted for manslaughter in the starvation death of their seven-month-old girl, have pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of willfully denying her necessary food. The couple were referred Monday to the Probation Department for a report before sentencing.

The Drabishes have five other children. When the infant died last November, Mrs. Drabish said she had to keep the child on a light diet because she had a cold and was cutting teeth.

Held In Son's Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police in East Cleveland today held for questioning Robert L. Koslasky, 27, whose infant son, Michael, died of head injuries Sunday. Koslasky's wife told police her husband dashed the child, one of a pair of month-old twins, against the wooden headboard of a bed, but Koslasky said it was accidental.

4 Killed, 4 Hurt In 2-Car Wreck

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Four persons were killed and four others seriously injured today in a two-car crash east of Macedonia on Ohio 82 in Summit County.

Dead are Donald P. Hoverland, 27, of Twinsburg, his wife, Mary, their one-year-old son, Robert H., and Leroy R. Rivers, 28, of Cleveland, driver of the second car.

In serious condition was another son of the Hoverlands, Tommy, 4. The Highway Patrol reported three persons from the other car were in critical condition—Eugene Brown, 25, Roberta Gibbs, 22, and Beverly Payne, 22, all of Cleveland.

The patrol said the Hoverland car was making a left turn when the Rivers car hit it. The Overland car was slammed back 220 feet.

Wreckers working with torches freed three persons pinned in the Rivers auto and one in the Hoverland car.

'We Was Robbed,' Cries Team That Wins Game

LAGRANGE, Ky. (AP) — "We was robbed," hollered the Ft. Knox baseball team today even though they whipped a team of Kentucky State Reformatory inmates, 11-10.

When the soldiers returned to the locker room they found missing from their belongings about $200 in cash, seven wrist watches and four or five pair of GI shoes. The locker room had been padlocked, but Deputy Warden Porter Lady said "A lock doesn't mean much to some of our boys."

Florida Picks Governor In Voting Today

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida voters decide upon a new governor today in a Democratic primary runoff election in which retiring Gov. LeRoy Collins' moderate approach to the racial problem was a key issue.

An estimated 800,000 Floridians were expected to turn out to choose between former House Speaker Farris Bryant, a firm segregationist, and State Sen. Doyle E. Carlton Jr., a moderate. Collins, who is expected to be named permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention, made an election eve pitch for Carlton in a statewide TV talk in which he charged Bryant would lead Florida down the road of "reaction, retreat and regret."

The governor, ineligible to succeed himself, declared Carlton was best equipped in "attitude and dependability" to serve the people of Florida.

Bryant replied that Collins remarks about him were "ill-advised, ill-timed and untrue."

Bryant, 45-year-old Harvard-educated attorney from Ocala, was rated a slight favorite on the basis of solid strength in north and west Florida and strong support in such major cities as Jacksonville and Orlando.

Carlton, homespun 37-year-old Wauchula rancher, based his hopes on a strong turnout in his populous lower East Coast area and in the Tampa Bay area.

The winner of the Carlton-Bryant battle will take on Republican nominee George Petersen of Fort Lauderdale in the November general election. In Florida, Democratic nomination has been tantamount to election.

Gov. Brown To Walk Streets To Find Out Peoples' Choice

By MORRIE LANDSBERG
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown is going to "walk the main streets of California" to learn for himself whom the people would like to see win the Democratic nomination for president.

The Democratic governor announced plans today for the unusual political safari.

It came on top of arrangements by the California Democratic Council to poll 2,500,000 of the state's 3,600,000 registered Democrats on their presidential preference.

"Polls have their place," Brown said, "but I have long since found that the only way I could really find out what people are thinking is to listen to them myself."

He indicated that his soundings would help guide his slate of delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

Brown said he had decided not to make any formal campaign in behalf of the 81-vote delegation pledged to him as only a nominal candidate.

He is opposed by a rival Democratic slate in the June 7 primary committed to George McLain, Los Angeles pension promoter.

Brown, who used the street corner technique in his 1958 campaign for governor, plans to begin his informal walks in downtown Los Angeles Wednesday morning, and move to Long Beach in the afternoon.

He will make similar appearances elsewhere. His office said no timetable has been arranged but that he would fit the walks into his regular schedule.

Ohio Has 34 Qualifiers In National Open Golf

By The Associated Press
A New Philadelphia professional, a freshman on the Ohio State golf team and a Cincinnati blanket salesman paced Ohio's qualifiers Monday for the National Open golf tournament.

In all, 34 players from three district qualifiers—at Canton, Columbus and Cincinnati—advance to the sectional qualifier at Cincinnati June 6. Sectional qualifiers will earn berths at the national tournament in Denver June 16-18.

Monday's best round was turned in by Charles Wiperman, 43-year-old pro at the Union club in New Philadelphia. He birdied nine holes and had an eagle on another as he toured the Canton Brookside course in a four-under-par 70-70-140 to lead 16 qualifiers.

The Cincinnati blanket salesman, Roger McManus, fired a two-under-par 70-70-140 over Western Hills Country Club's 6,415-yard layout to pace eight qualifiers. McManus was a semifinalist in the 1958 National Amateur.

Don Stickney, 19-year-old Ohio State freshman, led the 10 Columbus district qualifiers with a two-under-par 72-74-146 over the 6,067-yard Scioto Country Club course. The 130-pound six-foot Columbus boy beat Jackie Nicklaus in the quarterfinals of the 1958 Ohio Amateur only to lose in the semifinals.

Nicklaus, National Amateur champion and a 20-year-old Columbus junior on the Ohio State golf team, did not participate in the district qualifier. He automatically qualified for the National Open by being among the top 20 open finishers last year.

A total of 179 players participated in the three qualifiers—81 at Canton, 54 at Columbus and 44 at Cincinnati.

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A 400-pound black bear was shot to death after a brief hunt north of here involving 30 policemen and sheriff's deputies Monday.

The bear gained freedom when someone cut the steel wire of its cage at the home of Carl Brunstetter of Sagamore Hills.

Brunstetter found the cage cut and the bear missing Monday and called police. He told them to shoot on sight since the bear, acquired four years ago as a cub, might turn vicious after his long confinement.

Independence Patrolman Donald Kuthan spotted the bear in a wooded ravine. Using a 300-magnum rifle with a telescopic sight, Kuthan felled the bear with one shot from a distance of about 125 feet.

Cites Duty Of Both Parties

Rockefeller Urges Debate On Why Summit Failed

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has called for a national debate, free of political partisanship, on why the summit conference failed.

He said Monday Republicans and Democrats both were duty bound to "speak and act with a frankness and a responsibility transcending the conventional restraints and formulas of partisan behavior."

By implication, the governor's statement was an endorsement of Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson's call last week for a full discussion of the summit failure in Paris.

But it was also a rebuke to any who might seek political advantage from the collapse.

"I fervently hope," said Rockefeller, "that the Democratic party in its proper desire to get at the facts, will not engage in any shallow partisan effort to assign all error to its adversaries, all wisdom to itself."

"I hope — no less fervently for being a Republican — that Republicans will not try to disguise the present situation for equally partisan reasons. For it would be false and frivolous — and ultimately damaging to both nation and party — to dismiss sober criticism of specific American conduct as a peril to national unity."

The statement came less than 48 hours before a scheduled meeting of New York GOP leaders at Albany to consider their course at the Republican National Convention in July.

Among the items to be discussed is whether Rockefeller's name should be entered for the party's presidential nomination.

Assault Case Dropped Against Store Operator

An assault and battery charge against Robert Schlange, operator of Robert's Jewelry Store on the Diamond, was dismissed Monday following a hearing in Municipal Court.

The motion for dismissal was made by Atty. Ben H. Berman, counsel for Schlange, after testimony from Mrs. Janell Pickens of 7th Ave., LaCroft, a customer who filed the charge, and her husband.

In ruling on the motion, Judge Samuel Chertoff said the testimony failed to prove "intent" and there was no testimony to show the plaintiff "was in fear." Judge Chertoff lectured Schlange on his conduct and ordered him to apologize to Mr. and Mrs. Pickens.

Homicide-Suicide Ruled In Man, Wife's Deaths

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Coroner Robert Evans ruled homicide-suicide in the shooting deaths Monday of William E. Mettelle, 84, and his wife, Harriet, 85.

Dr. Evans said Mettelle shot his wife in the head with a .38 caliber revolver, then put a bullet through his own brain.

The couple's bodies were found in their Columbus home by a housekeeper, who had been gone from the house only seven minutes.

County Prosecutor Earl Allison said Mettelle left a note to police in which he said he had seen his father become disabled and he didn't want that to happen to him.

Mettelle was hit by a car 18 months ago and some time after the accident his injured leg was amputated.

Presbyterian Staff Prepares

50 Attend Church Camp Training

AT PRESBYTERIAN CAMP. The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Beaver Creek Presbyterian Camp examined plans for a new structure which will house the kitchen and cook's quarters at the camp at a training session Saturday. Pictured, from left, are the Rev. Mark Allen of Toronto, Marion Horger of East Liverpool, Stanley Rose of East Liverpool, Miss Elizabeth Larick of Poland, Mrs. Donald Baxter of East Liverpool, the Rev. David Mellon of Brilliant, and Robert Hummer of Girard.

About 50 attended a "training day" for Beaver Creek Presbyterian Camp at Grimses Bridge Saturday, with the Rev. Richard Fruit of Lake Milton, chairman of the program committee in charge, assisted by the Rev. David Mellon, of Brilliant, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Miss Elizabeth Larick of Poland, director of Christian education.

The philosophy of "small-group" camping was explained by Rev. Fruit to begin the day, then the groups held workshops. Rev. Mellon and Rev. Fruit were in charge of the seniors and Miss Larick, the juniors. All three recently returned from a training session at Pilgrim's Hill near Wooster. Six directors and 10 key counselors also attended the session.

The Board of Trustees met at 3 p. m. following the training session and Rev. Fruit opened with prayer and Rev. Mellon presided.

MEMBERS of the Board of Trustees who attended included Marion Horger, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Baxter, registrar; secretary; George Reynolds, caretaker; and Stanley Rose, co-chairman of the development committee.

Others included the Rev. Ralph Johnson of Salem; Cliff Aitken of Brilliant, chairman of the operations committee; Donald Walter of Minerva; the Rev. George Jenkins of Carrollton, General Presbyter; the Rev. Mark Allen of Toronto, chairman of the development committee and Robert Hummer of Girard, chairman of the administration committee.

Midland July 4th Group Asks Parade Entries From District

Civic organizations and others of East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester, Newell and Midland were urged by the Midland July 4th Committee Monday night to enter floats, bands and other units in the parade.

O. N. Carter, finance chairman, pointed out that support in the mills has been good and that many who work at the Crucible Steel Co. live out of Midland, yet give money by payroll deductions to make the celebration possible.

He said that nearby cities should participate in the parade.

Entry blanks are available at the borough secretary's office either by mailed request or they can be picked up. They may also be obtained at the Review. Entry blanks have a deadline of June 22. They were mailed out last week to those who entered last year's parade.

Prizes for floats, approved at the last meeting, include general class — $100, $80, $70, $60, $50, $40 and $30, and youth organization — $75, $60, $45, $30, $15 and $10. There will also be prizes of $10 and $5 for humorous entries.

Drill team prizes include 2 trophies and $100, $75 and $50 in cash. Prizes for other types of entries may be decided later.

The committee examined its budget and Charles P. Henderson, program chairman, will be contacted today to begin setting up a tentative all-day program.

Carter, in his financial report, urged continued support of residents and others since the budget for this year's celebration will be smaller due to curtailment in industry.

The "Queen Anne's Rifles," the drill team of Salem VFW Post 892, has sent in its entry and others are expected. John Reider, parade co-chairman, said.

Under the administration report, Hummer explained the health and accident insurance policy which covers all children and adults.

He also led discussion on the weekend use of the camp and said that the committee is preparing a form to be filled out in advance by the groups desiring to use the camp before and after summer camping season. After the new kitchen and cook's quarter addition is built, the building will be winterized for winter retreats and conferences, Hummer said.

The committee also is compiling an educational brochure for the camp.

Rev. Allen and Rose reported that contractors will begin on the new kitchen and cook's quarters addition within the next 10 days, and that final plans are set for purchase of a walk-in cooler.

Under the program committee report, Rev. Fruit told of the successful "training day" that was completed earlier in the day, and that counselors are still needed especially adults.

He announced that the camping periods will be from June 6 through Aug. 21. The capacity will be 70 campers each week.

AITKEN REPORTED for the operations committee and announced that the hiring of permanent staff has been completed. It includes John Piliotti of Ironton, crafts director; Miss Kaye Davis, East Liverpool, waterfront and recreation director; Mrs. LeVada Moore of Wellsville, head cook; and Miss Sara Cowling of East Liverpool and Mrs. B. B. Gorrell also of Wellsville, assistant cooks, and

Key counselors from each week camp session will meet with their individual staffs sometime before the camp week.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Baxter.

The next meeting of the trustees will be held June 12 at 3 p. m. at the camp.

He reported on plans for the flag raising ceremony to follow the parade. Eddie Hoak of Manor, Pa., chairman of Americanism for the American Legion in Pennsylvania, will be principal speaker.

Guests will include Tony Ricco of Harrisville, commander of the Legion's 26th District, School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible, and Burgess Eli Corak of Midland. Cadet Larry Needs of Midland, now at West Point, has been invited.

American Legion Post 481 will donate a 4x5 50-star flag to be raised as the old one is lowered on flag poles near the bandstand in Lincoln Park.

Capt. William MacBurney of Crucible plant protection was authorized to act on a bid for fireworks received from the company which supplied them last year.

Four men, instead of three, will set them off this year. Fireworks will be closely spaced and will last about 25-30 minutes, he said.

Hired thus far for the day's celebration have been Jimmy Sebastian's band and the "Sensational Kayes," a highwire acrobatic and comedy team.

The day's events will consist of the parade, which will include the "Old Timers" again, flag raising ceremonies, variety shows and concerts in the afternoon along with events for children. Spectators may attend the Knights of Columbus art exhibit and the firemen's carnival.

During the evening, there will be a variety act and drill team competition at the athletic field and fireworks in Crucible Park. Plans are being made for a street dance.

Corak, chairman, presided.

10 Seek Post Of Principal

Applications from some 10 men for the post of principal at Beaver Local Public School were taken under study by the Board of Education Monday night.

Final selection of an appointee is to be made later after a further study of qualifications. The post was formerly held by Joseph Gerlach, who resigned.

The board also took under consideration a request from County Welfare Director Robert Bycroft for funds for training of mentally retarded children. The board will await further information on the program from County Supt. James McBride.

Applications for funds for aid on three science projects under the Title 3 program were authorized. They include books for the public school library, a microscope for the public school and darkening shades for the high school gymnasium.

Details were heard on a summer school program offering subjects to students who are unable to obtain them during the regular curriculum year. Courses will be offered in typing, industrial arts and driver training. Some 80 students are expected to sign for the courses.

Bills totaling $575 for expenses of baccalaureate and commencement were paid. Authorization was made for 5 cooks to attend a school lunch workshop at Kent State University June 28-30.

The next meeting will be June 13.
